THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

28 June 1989

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

FROM: Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

SUBJECT: National Advisory Group/Counterintelligence and Security Countermeasures

General Scowcroft has asked me to thank you for your memorandum of 19 June following up on your proposal of 3 March relating to NSD-1 and the Senior Interdepartmental Group-Intelligence. ☐

STAT

We appreciate your clarifying for us the role that you have in mind for the National Advisory Group/CI and SCM. In particular, your memorandum makes clear that the NAG/CI and SCM is an internal intelligence community/interagency group created to advise you on intelligence community matters relating to counterintelligence and security countermeasures. It is not intended as a substitute for the PCC/Intelligence or any other entity created by NSD-1. We are fully comfortable with the NAG/CI and SCM reporting to you and advising you. As you suggest, you are free to report -- at your option -- NAG/CI and SCM findings and recommendations either to the NSC Deputies Committee, the Principals Committee, or the NSC itself. ☐

STAT

Creation of this group seems to be a sensible and useful initiative to ensure that you have the views of relevant departments and agencies in areas of counterintelligence and security countermeasures for which the DCI is responsible. We concur in your proposal for its establishment and for its role outside the NSC structure. ☐
